Subject: Department of Children, Youth and Families Invoice Review FY2324.

Dear Bill:

This letter conveys the results of the Department of Children, Youth and Families Invoice Review for the months of August and September of 2023.

We are pleased to report that there were no issues identified in our review.

Please extend our appreciation to your staff for their preparation in submitting all supporting documents and assistance during the process. We thank you for your work in serving the San Francisco community.
